GRAND PLAN: Several major projects are part of a plan to revitalize the heart of Bendigo.

THE 2018 budget funds the beginning of a plan to revitalise Wendgo's CRO, particularly the northern end.

The City of Greater Bendigo, Regional Development Victoria and various industry groups have been working together to bring more people into the heart of the city – but to do so requires several significant projects to fall into place.

Last year's budget suggested election-year promises would come in relation to the Budgetary law costs, with a 2017-18 commitment of \$3.9 million to "develop plans to address current and future demand pressures so cases can be heard sooner"

Also provided was $1 million for Bendigo to develop a proposal to “consolidate Victorian public service and council functions and agencies into a new customer service centre”. It was a planning budget – and this year, the next pieces of the puzzle have been put in place.
